GAMES TODAY.

New York at Washington. Two

Baltimore at Boston. Philadelphia at Brooklyn. St. Louis at Pittsburg. Cleveland at Chicago. Louisville at Cincinnati.

To lose and win from New York was entirely satisfactory to the 10,372 people who witnessed the two games at National Park yesterday afternoon. The Senators failed to beat Hoosier Amos, but the sublime Meekin went down before the Statesmen, only after a desperate battle however. It was a regular fan day, and they were there in every shape, style, and shade Some did considerable squeezing for the home team, while the others were used to keep the owners cool. It would be a hard matter to determine which did the most work, but together they were an institution equal to a McKinley prosperity Sugar Trust \ Each was necessary, as le was not only a warm day, but the last game, especially, was red-hot. The Giants flushed with a victory in the first game, were confident and aggressiv In the second's start, while the Senator marting under defeat at the hands Temple Cup aspirants, were determine and resolute. They did not lose heart liming, after the Gharts scored two runs in the New 1 first inning, but they were strong at bat, and at once began the work of getting back the runs, and this they did. Zeke Wrigley, the promising yearing, with an old man's head on his shoulders. was just a trifle out of kelter in fielding in the first game, but his batting was to s large degree fiery, and he located the right field bleachers for a homer with some nen on bases. In the second contest he grabbed up Ducky Holmes' grounder while on a dead run and nailed Park Wilson at the plate on a throw that made Scrappy Joyce turn green with envy. He also in a sort of a base hit copartnership with O'Brien helped to score one of the Senators' six runs.

James McGuire made two wild throws ever, affected the score. But he was a blood Salvation Army base drum mer at the bat. Jonett Meekin's nir liners were just to his fancy, and as the Irishman would have it, devil a bit could the fielders stop his hits from going safe. Reilly and his mit were in great form. The genius of the fashion plate was a king pia in the field. With nine errorless chances in the first, he finished the second in a style that puts him in a class that is hard to beat. He captured two difficult flies running with the ball and made a like number of phenomenal stops. DeMontreville was in his glory and got everything that came his way, and twice robbed the hatter of base hits. He did a great deal of nonsensical "guying" in a "Stonewall Jackson" on second exemplified the name given bim by a high-class rooter. He. DeMontreville and Tucker threw down Van Haltren and Turner, than whom none others are fleeter of foot, in a double play in the second inning of the second game in such a fast manner that the crowd went wild. Van Haltren seems to be enjoying bis second life on earth. His manner of butting is so refreshing that a fellow cooled off whenever be came up to line it out Just when the home team thought the and a plumber's bill cinch on him he would drop the ball down and bat it out with apparent case. And again, when too hard pressed he would send the sphere safely to the outfield.

MoJames had great control of the ball at critical times, and he shot the leather over the plate with a curve much like a South Carolina sapling is tent in making a snare for a rabbit. And he caught the Giants seven times with the clever deception. Tiernan, Joyce, Gleason, Clark, Holmes and Meekin were the victims, Gleason striking out twice, the last time in the ninth with two men on bases. cker had his first error, but it came at These ran in the first game was lost. His three-bagger in the first inning of the second game was timely, scoring two runs, the Senator's left fielder having received a free pass and DeMontreville hitting safely. The Senators next scored in the third after two men were out, on a base on balls to DeMontreville, his steal and singles by McGuire and Tucker. They increased the number of runs by O'Brien's double and Wrigley's single in the Abbey opened the sixth with a triple to right center, and trotted home on O'Brien's single Relly's single, Meckin's error, and O'Brien's out to Van Haltren.

The Giants opened the first with the rush of a frenzied stock speculator. Van Haltren, Tiernau and Davis' singles netted two runs, and they were prevented from further scoring only by a remarkable one hand catch of Warner's liner by DeMontre-

In the second the fast double play referred to above cut short the hopes of additional runs. McJames was a pux-zle until the eighth, when, after Davis went out, Gleason, Wilson, Clark and Bolmes hit for singles, but Wrigley's accurate throw and McGmire's huge bluff on a throw to catch a runner at second and nipping Clark at third out the inning short, the visitors scoring only once.

Meekin started the ninth with a single over second. Van Haltren followed with his fourth safe hit. Reilly made a sensational catch of Tiernan's fly back of third, Joyce was hit and the bases were full. Gleason flew out to Wrigley and Davis scored. Then came Gleason and eletory for the Senators, as the midget an struck out. The score of the

The first game was lost in the first in ring. Mercer made a wildthrow of Van Haltren's bunt, and this was followed by a series of misplays and sun-eyeflies. The second was no improvement and the black-haired twirler was blanketed and Lorg Hilary Swaim went on the rubber.

The youngster pitched fair ball, and had he been given that excellent support which has characterized the Senators' work of late, and had the home team hit as timely as usual, he might have pulled the game out. But things went wrong and that is the only way to account for the defeat. The score of the first game follows and tells the story of the game in figures:

I have rather an interesting case to report. About one year ago a gentleman about 70 years old had a severe attack of inflammation of the bladder, with attending compacations. During the past year he has been greatly tropbled with difficult urnation. Some three weeks ago I commenced giving him Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills, and after using one box the trouble has been overcome, and today he reports himself quite well, thanks to the pills. I shall certainly continue the use of the pills up all similar cases. I regard them as a nost valuable addition to the Materia Medica. I. STINSON HARRISON, M. D., 1008 H st. nw., Washington, D. C.

KITEFOOT'S GREAT RACE

McCafferty's Two-Year-Old Filly Defeats the Cracks.

Great Sport on a Fast Track in Fast Time-Heart-Breaking Finish in the Sixth.

New York, June 25. - Five thousand persons saw John J. McCafferty's good twoyear-old filly Kitefoot defeat the cracks of her age for the Fount Stakes at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon in very fast time Archduke was second and Varus third. The other stake features, the Coney Island Hardicap, at six furlangs, served to show what a good sprinter James R. Keene's three year-old Voter, the son of Friars-Balsam, making an exhibition of his field and winning in a romp. The Swain was second and Brandywine third. The weather was excessively warm, and the races were decided over a very fast O H. P. Beimont's colt, Great Bend, with Taral up, was the favorite for the Foun

Stakes, but he was only half a point before Archduke and Hand Bail, while the Morris pair, Varus and False Pride, and Mc-Cafferty's pair, Kliefoot and Corelli, were held at 6 to 1. It was 50 to 1 against the Thompson nomination, Colonial Dame, and 100 to 1 that the Oneck Stables gelding, Accounts, could not win. Taral got away in front with Great Bend, but Poomac's brother did not have speed enough to keep his advantage, and was passed in the first 10 yards by Varus and Kitefoot. Going to the bend, McCafferty sent Kitefoot along at her best clip, and she shock off Varus and showed a clean pair of heels to her field. First Mate was withdrawn from the Coney Island Handicap, leaving Voter a strong favorite over the field. It was no race for the Keene three-year-old, Sloane taking him to the *ront shortly after the start, and winning under a pull by six or seven lengths. Nick, at the saug odds of 6 to 1, won the opening dash at six furlongs after a short struggle with the two-year-old Bliss Rucker, a son of Salvator.

Lady Mitchell, at odds on, beat an ordi

mary field of three-year-old fillies in the second event, a daisy at one mile. The fifth event, at one mile and a furlong, went to Fleischman and Sons' three-year-old Haphazard, who collared Doggett in the very instatrides.

But while the fifth race furnished a good contest, it was not in it with the finish in the last, when Dame Quickly won by a nose and Sun Up and Divide ran a dead heat for second money; Taral was told to wait with Pivide and the Instructions prob ably cost him the race. Biffe was fourth Summaries

TEN DAYS

Without Coffee Makes Some Wonderful Changes.

If the new X-rays were used to photograph our own individual liver and stom ach, we might be astonished and likely frightened if we had been suffering from the use of coffee or tobacco. Coffee has the same poisonous alkaloids as strychnine, morphine, tobacco and whisky, and its daily use, even in small quantities, is the direct cause of that weak, dragging feeling and the many troubles of stomach, heart, liver and bowels. Tonics may patch one up for a little time and make one feel a little better. But what man, with even a little plain common sense, but sees that the only way to keep well is to throw over days' freedom from coffee and ten days' use of Postum Cereal Coffee will produc so radical a change toward health and strength that the facts become plain to anyone. Don't believe it, but try it and judge for yourself, and then wonder why you would daily submit to the old physical iscomforts week in and week out, leading a most enpleasant existence, when by a very little attention to the breakfast bever age, one could be transported back to the bounding health of boyhood.

Postum grain coffee looks like old Mocha, but everyone, children and all, can drink Postum and digest it without trouble.

FITZ WILL MEET SULLIVAN. Says He Has Accepted the ex-Cham pion's Challenge. New York, June 25.-Bob Fitzsimmer said yesterday he had accepted Sullivan's challenge, and would spar him a four of six round go for points.

"He has my full permission to knowle me out if he can. I will not strike him nard enough to knock him out, as it might result in manslaughter," is the magning mous declaration of Lanky Bob "I will spar for points and treat him ricely, while he can fight for a knock out. I will positively agree to let him try just and as an additional assurance to John that nothing disastrous will happen to him, I merely intend to keep away from his smashes and show him that I can hit him at will." John L's battle with fat is on at the farm of William Muldoon, the wrestler, in the hills eight miles from Rye Beach.

means a bandicap of an inch or two of fat all over one when a man is the size of Sullivan. It means hard, hard work will beat out all but a "stayer." But John L. is nothing if not a "stayer." So he is training to beat out his fat, be cause he means to be in the b 4 of condition to meet the champion. As soon as Muldoon can investigate his condition John will be put under a trainer and given the full course of treatment. Sullivan does not care what terms Fitzimmons makes. He wants to get into the ring with the Australian and promises then to take care of himself. Jim Corbett Lost a Hundred. Boston, June 25 .- In the sixth inning of today's game, with the score 9 to 6 in the Orioles' favor. Jim Corbett's bluff of offering to bet $106 that Baltimore would win, was called by a Boston sympathizer, and the ex-champion was the sorest man on the field at the finish.

WIFE CHARGES CRUELTY.

Mrs. Florence Fay Davidson Peti tions for Absolute Divorce. Suit for absolute divorce was filed by Florence Fay Davidson yesterday from her iusband, James S. Davisson, upon the ground of cruelty, neglect and abuse. Mr. Davidson, it is alleged, twice saulted his wife, and during April, 1896, in their residence at No. 1810 Oregon avenue, and a second time at Pine's Heights. Inu. in the State of Pennsylvania. On the first of these occasions he choked her so that she was compelled to leave the house with her infant child and spend the night with her brother. This abuse, it is further affirmed, is the result of the excessive use of intoxicating quors, and as a relief therefrom the plaintiff petitions that she may be given a absolute divorce, with the privilege of resurring her maiden name. orays for the custody of their two infant children.

The Hallstorm in Topeka. The latest advices from Topeka show the storm to have been even worse than was at first supposed, many people were injured by the tremendous hall stones, and there is hardly a house in the town that is not damaged. It just serves to prove that we can never discount the future, but that we should be prepared as much as possible for every emergency. It is always wise to keep a little of Tharp's Fure Berkeley Rye in the house in case of sudden sickness. The least delay often proves fatal. For sale by James Tharp, 812 F street northwest. It Happens This Morning.

Sweltering humanity will be relieved to know that Messrs. M. Dyrenforth & Co., No. 923 Pennsylvania avenue, place two carloads of cool summer clothing on sale this morning at riddeulously low prices. It is the balance of the entire summer stock of Warner Bros. & Co., of Buffalo., N. Y., known to the trade as manufacturers of the finest grade of men's and boys' clothing. Messrs. Dyrenforth & Co. nade an offer of 33 1-3 cents on the dollar for this stock last Monday, scarcely daring to think that It would be accepted, but much to their surprise it was, and the entire stock goes on sale today at prices that cannot fall to attract a swarm of buyers. Their announcement on the first page of this morning's Times gives some interesting price details.
